

8TH GRADE WASHINGTON, D.C. PRE-TRIP BEHAVIOR CONTRACT

It is required that all students attending the Washington, D.C. trip meet certain academic, behavior, and attendance standards. Please read the requirements below and complete the bottom of this form.

- Participants must be passing ALL core subjects (ELA, Math, Science, Social Studies, and Intensive Reading (if enrolled) with a 60% or higher.
- Participants must have no more than 5 unexcused absences from the date of trip registration.
- Participants must exhibit model behavior by following the TCA F.L.O.W. expectations.

Unacceptable behavior resulting in any of the following consequences during the school year may result in removal from the trip:

- Any Level 3 Offense
- Out of school suspension
- More than 2 instances of any suspension (OSS or ISS)

Students, please be aware of these guidelines and monitor your actions as you progress through each school day. It is not the intention of the school administration or faculty to limit attendance on such a positive, educational trip. Instead, it is our intention to encourage students to be successful in their academic and behavioral pursuits.

Parents, should the need arise, we will notify you if your child's status changes due to poor academics, attendance or behavior. Due to pricing being dependent on the number of participants, if your child's status changes and they are not able to attend due to attendance, behavior, or grades, you will NOT be reimbursed what you have paid toward the trip.

STUDENT ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I understand the academic, attendance, and behavior expectations listed above and acknowledge that if I do not meet these expectations, I will not be able to attend the 25-26 TCA Washington, D.C. field study.
